Pro Bono Pledge

Take a matter that matters

“Our system of justice works only if the people we serve believe that the system is truly fair and just for all. Lawyers make a difference. Without lawyers, many litigants are simply unable to navigate the legal system. Please make a difference for low-income people in this community. Take the Pro Bono pledge and help make access to justice for all a reality.”

*Stephen K. Bushong
Presiding Judge
Multnomah County Circuit Court*

Thousands of low-income members of our community are facing serious legal problems. Families are losing their homes. Women are threatened by abusive relationships. People with disabilities are being unfairly denied benefits. Having the law on their side is not always enough. Sometimes they need a lawyer by their side. Unfortunately, only about 15% of low-income Oregonians receive needed legal representation.

The Multnomah Bar Association’s Pro Bono Pledge seeks to dramatically increase access to justice by calling on attorneys to commit to at least one pro bono matter in 2022. In addition, law firms are asked to adopt a written pro bono policy and encourage participation in the individual pledge. Both are asked to financially support legal service organizations of their choice.

The benefits of pro bono representation are many. Lives are often changed and sometimes saved. Belief in our justice system is restored. Attorneys who accept pro bono work receive personal satisfaction and valuable training, and law firms often receive public recognition.

The MBA Pro Bono Pledge aims to mobilize lawyers’ time and money to knock down the barriers that block access to the justice system for so many Oregonians. By giving a relatively small amount of each, together we can make a significant contribution to our community and a profound difference in the lives of individuals.

Attorneys and firms can sign the pledge online at www.mbabar.org/probonopledge.

“Every Oregon lawyer has an obligation to help ensure access to justice for all. The MBA Pro Bono Pledge - to represent a client of limited means or an organization serving that community and to provide financial support for legal services for the poor - is a public commitment to that bedrock principle of democracy. I encourage all lawyers to take the Pledge - you will learn much about the interrelated nature of reality and you, your clients, and our system of justice will benefit immensely from your participation.”

*Martha L. Walters
Chief Justice
Oregon Supreme Court*

“There is no greater privilege for our legal community than the opportunity to provide pro bono legal services. Our community, in particular our Black, Indigenous and other community members of color, continues to reel from the COVID-19 pandemic. As lawyers, we have the ability to make a difference and advocate for those who lack the resources. We must use our legal training to ensure justice for all.”

Jovita Wang
2021-22 MBA President

“Pro bono service gives us the opportunity to remember what inspired us to join the legal profession - the opportunity to help those in need and have a positive impact. Providing pro bono services not only fulfills our professional obligation to improve access to justice and grows our own skills, but also reminds us what being a lawyer is all about.”

Kirsten Rush
2021-22 YLS President
