

Answer the Call!

Join WCCCA - the second largest primary 9-1-1 Center in Oregon. We provide 9-1-1 emergency communications for over 15 police and fire agencies that serve Washington County and also provide fire service into Clackamas, Yamhill and Multnomah Counties.

Working for WCCCA means having a stable job environment while being able to serve your community. Working at WCCCA also means having opportunities for advancement. We have several paths employees can take to advance in their careers.

Our Call Takers and Dispatchers are truly the FIRST responders. Being a first responder is a mindset and for many, a calling. First responder's core values are deeply rooted in dedication, excellence, commitment, respect, partnership building, creativity, resourcefulness and compassion. All roles at WCCCA come with great benefits and competitive pay. Thorough, on-the-job paid training is provided. If this sounds good to you, apply today!
